

Social Networking Policy for Public Use

Protect Yourself-Be Privacy and Security Conscious

Access to the bank's social networking pages may be terminated if a user uploads or otherwise makes directly accessible content which infringes on any other party's copyrights, is considered offensive, off topic, spam, to be a personal attack, threatening, derogatory, non-constructive, political or religious in nature. This includes text, links, photos and images. The content will be removed upon discovery and users will be warned. Texas Gulf Bank may terminate repeat offenders access to the Texas Gulf Bank's social networking sites.

No confidential, personal or banking information should be shared on social networking sites and will be removed upon discovery by Texas Gulf Bank.

Texas Gulf Bank does not endorse any comments made by its employees, unless they are an authorized representative of the bank. All statements and viewpoints expressed in the comments are strictly those of the commenter alone, and do not constitute an official position of Texas Gulf Bank unless they are posted by an authorized representative of the bank. Employees of the bank must identify themselves in all posts. This fact may be material to other readers.
